

EARLY CHILDHOOD PROGRAMMING

Winter Session: January 2nd — February 25th

Mondays

Mandarin Fun

3:10pm—4:00 pm (ages 3-6)

Children will engage in conversation through learning basic words in Mandarin. They will see the written word, hear the pronunciation and learning the meaning of words through picture clues.

Tuesdays

Little Artist

3:10pm—4:00 pm (ages 4-6)

Kids will have a great time mixing paints and using different mediums while learning about various artists and basic drawing skills. A variety of projects will be created using different materials and techniques.

Tuesdays

Little Chefs

3:10pm— 4:00pm
(ages 3-6)

Healthy & yummy recipes are introduced as children cook up a fun recipe every week. Children will prepare and enjoy different foods while measuring, counting, sharing, and learning about nutrition.

Wednesdays

Amigos

3:10 pm—4:00 pm (ages 3-6)

Children will be exposed each week to various topics in Spanish through language and literacy. They will enjoy a story, and learn words through picture clues and conversations.

Thursdays

Ready, Set, Read

3:10pm—4:00 pm (ages 4-6)

A reading readiness class where children are exposed to alphabet letters and their formation and sounds. The activities are intended to help your child attain pre-reading skills.

Fridays

Ready, Set, Science

3:10pm—4:00 pm (ages 3-6)

This class will provide hands on exploration of the wonders of science with experiments and fascinating discoveries.
